

Dad get's an HLTA

I'm so excited for Dad to be coming home for two weeks, and I'm an awesome kid
I'm so very excited and happy that Dad gets to come home, and I'm a super-duper kid
I'm so full of excitement, and I'm so very happy, and I can't wait for Dad to come home

I'm so excited
Dad gets to come home for two weeks in the middle of the deployment
Dad gets to come home and I can't wait to see Dad
I'm so excited, I can't wait to meet him at the airport
And the big, big hug he'll give me, and the big, big smile he'll have on his face
And how happy, happy, happy we will all feel
It's a really good feeling that Dad's coming home for HLTA
And I'm so excited

I just can't wait for dad to come home—I'm so so excited!

We have a special trip planned
We'll have so much fun with Dad
We'll have special family time
I even get to miss some school
I get to do something with just Dad and me every day while he's home
And my sister does too, and my Mom
We are so happy and excited that he's coming home
It'll be the best two weeks ever.
